NEWS OF THE COLLEGES. A NEW SITH FOR ROANOKE-BERWICK ACAD-EMY'S CENTENNIAL.

Salem, Va., July 1 .- At the annual meeting of the tees. June 8, a committee was appointed to loc out a site for Roanoke College. The committee yes terday reported to a special meeting of the trustee that a site of sixty acres on the south side of the Roanole River was offered as a gift to the college. The trustees adopted the report of the committee; voted thanks for the generous offer of the site; and resolved to defer final action until some time in September when it is proposed to have a full meeting of the Board cial object. It seems to be preffy well settled that the splendid site offered will be accepted the present grounds sold, and new buildings erected as early as practicable. It is generally agreed that such a move will be a great step forward for SETTING A WIRE MAN-TRAP. A piece of wire played a part in the evidence produced yesterday in the Supreme Court on behalf of Mrs. Hannah L. Clayton in her effort to secure absolute divorce from Ransom F. Clayton, a wealthy Mrs. Clayton lives at No. 305 Stuyvesantave, and was married to the defendant in 1858, at Londonderry, Vt., and has five children living. George F. Wolfram, of No. 1,182 Herkimer-st., testified that F. Wolfram, of No. 1,182 Herkimer-st., testined that a Mrs. Margaret F. Oakley was the occupant of a flat at that number, and one of her visitors in May last was Clayton. To make sure that he remained in the house all night, Wolfram put a piece of thin wire on the gate when Clayton was in the house and found it unbroken in the morning. Soen after he saw Clayton leave the house. The defendant did not appear and the divorce was granted.

THE SALUTATORIAN DECORTED THE NEGRESS. Among the 10d graduates from the Central Grammar School for Girls on Tuesday evening was one colored girl. Christina Goode. There had been two colored girls in the class until the final examinations, but one failed to pass. It had been expected that they would march in together at the graduating exercises, and when only one colored girl remained the question arose as to which of her white classmates would go in beside her. Several declined, and it began to look as if she would have to go in alone, when Maria Charlotte Holder, one of the most beautiful girls in the class, and the salutatorian, volunteered to walk with her colored classmate, and did so.

SHE THREW HOT ASHES ON CHILDREN. Mary Yeaschoff, a young woman living at No. 80 egel-st., was arraigned before Justice Kenna yesterday on a charge of malicious mischief. The woman is believed to be demented and more than a dozen children living in the neighborhood have had their wearing apparel destroyed by her scattering hot ashes over them. On Thesday night Officer Hall, of the Sixth Precinct, arrested the woman. Before she would con-sent to being taken to the police station she had to be overpowered. The examination was adjourned.
